CELEBRATION OF DR. A. P. J. ABDUL KALAM JAYANTI

Dr. S. B. Patil in his speech said that, Dr. Kalam was an Indian aerospace scientist and politician who served as the 11th President of India from 2002 to 2007. He was born and raised in Rameshwaram, Tamil Nadu and studied physics and aerospace engineering. By his early childhood, Kalam's family had become poor. At an early age, he sold newspapers to supplement his family's income. In his school years, Dr. Kalam had average grades but was described as a bright and hardworking student who had a strong desire to learn. He spent hours on his studies, especially mathematics.

After graduating from the Madras Institute of Technology in 1960, Dr. Kalam joined the Aeronautical Development Establishment of the Defence Research and Development Organization (by Press Information Bureau, Government of India) as a scientist after becoming a member of the Defence Research & Development Service (DRDS).

Dr. Kalam served as the Chief Scientific Adviser to the Prime Minister and Secretary of the Defence Research and Development Organisation from July 1992 to December 1999. The Pokhran-II nuclear tests were conducted during this period in which he played an intensive political and technological role. Kalam served as the Chief Project Coordinator, along with Rajagopala Chidambaram, during the testing phase. Media coverage of Kalam during this period made him the country's best known nuclear scientist.

At ending of speech information of the highest awards given by Govt. of India to Dr. Kalam as, Padmbhushan in 1981, Padmvibhushan in 1990, Bharatratn in 1997 & Indira Gandhi Rashtriy Ekatmata Award in 1997 were given by Dr. S. B. Patil, Principal, DYP CAET, Talsande.
